

Navigating Change: A Manager's Guide to Leading the Way

An Everything DiSC® Webinar

In the landscape of organizational change, the focus is often on strategies, systems, and structures. However, the deeply personal experience of how organizational changes impact their most valuable asset—their people—is often overlooked. Fortunately, organizations have a powerful change management resource at their fingertips—their managers.

Unlocking a manager's potential doesn't just happen. Managers need tools to improve interactions, build teams, and navigate the messy middle. Fortunately, many of your organizations already have access to a powerful tool that will help your managers reach their full potential—Everything DiSC® on Catalyst™.

Join Dr. Mark Scullard, Sr. Director of Product Innovation, Wiley Assessment Brands, to learn how people process change and what managers can do to meet their unique needs.
